Hello, Gorgeous!

Want to look big-day beautiful? Here we answer your top 10 beauty questions.

Q How can I make sure my lipstick lasts through all the toasts and congratulatory kisses?

A "A few simple steps will keep lips smooch-worthy until the last dance," promises Toronto-based makeup artist David Scott. First, spread a light layer of concealer on lips, then fill with a neutral lip pencil to create a stain-like base. Next, apply lip color, blot with a tissue, then lightly dust lips with loose powder. Finally, slick on one more layer of lipstick. The result? Lip color that won't budge.

Q I had a blast at the rehearsal dinner and now my skin is paying the price. Help!

A "Get yourself hydrated ASAP," recommends beauty

Q I want soft, loose waves for my wedding—how can I

Q Pre-wedding stress has made my skin break out! How can I zap a zit fast?

A If you've got a couple of weeks, see your dermatologist for a course of antibiotics, suggests Dr. David Bank, director of the Center of Dermatology in Mt. Kisco, NY. If your wedding is less than a week out, use a warm compress to open up the pimple; once open, it should disappear within a day. Getting hitched in 24 hours or less? Ask your derm for a cortisone injection to take down the swelling.
