

4 Things All Guys Crave Hearing
p. 74

Beauty News

The hot trends, tips, and stuff you've gotta try this month

Warm up pale skin with a base like Clarins Summer Fever Sun Tinted Gel, $30.

Molly Sims

Try This Flirting Trick

Here's news to make you blush. Research from the California Institute of Technology suggests that nrimates developed color

Revlon Crème de la Chrome Liquid Lipcolor, $9.99

CELEB LOOK

A Bold Summer Trend

Bronzer is a must-have for your face in the summer, but shade also looks great on your eyes and lips—especially together. “Sticking with a bronze color all over makes a ment,” says celeb makeup artist Nick Barose. Just blend eye shadow up to your brow bone with your finger. Rub on your lips, top with a metallic lip color, and you’re god

Sleek Legs

Fed up with waxing? Try an electronic epilator. “New versions pluck out more hairs per stroke, and the results last as long as waxing does,” says NYC derm David Bank. We like Braun Silk-Épil Xpressive, $109.99. It is not totally painless but causes less irritation than older models do.

Got Face Issue

They have ingredients that

Treat your summer skin flare-ups with our top picks.

You want to hide puffy circles from too many late nights. Look for a formula packed with moisturizers like glycerin to smooth bags and a pearly finish to counteract purplish rings.

Maybelline Instant Age-Rewind Double Face Perfector, $8.99

blemishes triggered by sweating. Look for a portable stick with salicylic acid to kill zits plus a calming agent (like sesame extract) to reduce redness.

Murad Acne Treatment Concealer, $20

lines that appear way more obvious in broad daylight. Look for a cream with light-reflecting pigments to minimize creases and protective SPF.

Lancôme Photogenic Skin-Illuminating Concealer SPF 15, $26.50

See page 229 for shopping information.

